If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for U.S. Customs and Border Protection charges (duties, taxes or other debts owed Customs and any additional Other Government Agencies) in the event the broker does not pay the charges. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs and Border Protection and Other Government Agency charges may be paid with a separate check payable to the "U.S. Customs & Border Protection" which shall be delivered to Customs and Border Protection by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks.

U.S. Customs Requirements for Duty-Free Claims for U.S. and Foreign Made Goods Returning to the U.S. (Authorization Letter)

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) regulations and recent communications to the trade provide requirements for duty free entry of products of the United States when returned after having been exported or any other products when returned within 3 years after having been exported, without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means while abroad. The following documents must be filed in connection with the entry of such articles entered under Harmonized Tariff Schedule 9801.00.10.

1. A declaration by the shipper that the goods were previously exported from the U.S. and are being returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means.
2. A declaration by the importer that the goods were manufactured in the U.S. and were not exported under benefit of drawback. The declaration must be signed by an officer of the company or an employee that has been granted power of attorney to do so.
3. One or more of the following documents for foreign made goods proving export from the U. S.:
 - a. Copy of the entry into the foreign country;
 - b. U.S. export invoice or bill of lading/airway bill; or,
 - c. Electronic Export Information (EEI) or the Automated Export System (AES) filing exemption.
4. For aircraft and aircraft parts and equipment returned to the U. S. by an aircraft owner or operator and intended for use in his own aircraft operations, a properly executed CBP Form 3311.

CBP may require, in addition to the declarations above, additional documents to substantiate the claim for duty-free treatment including a statement from the U.S. manufacturer verifying that the articles were made in the United States.

I, _____(individual’s name), on behalf of _____(company name), hereby acknowledge that I understand my obligation to provide the above documents to DHL Express USA Inc. (“DHLE”) or to CBP directly hereby authorize DHLE to make entry under HTS 9801.00.10 when so indicated on commercial shipping documents.
